SVdP SEMI ANNUAL COLLECTION

This weekend, St. Peter’s conference of the Society of St. Vincent de Paul will be fundraising after all Masses. Representatives will be at the doors to the Church to accept donations. Please remember that all donations go back into the Port Washington community to help those in need. Thank you for your support.

REMEMBERING OUR LOVED ONES

A special way to remember our loved ones is to dedicate one or more of the altar items for a period of one week. Altar flowers, bread and wine, altar candles, and the sanctuary candle are available for this donation. They may also be dedicate to the living, in honor of a special occasion. If you are interested in arranging for this, please visit the rectory. The dedication will be printed in the bulletin, and it is best to plan ahead. Thank you.

Summer Blessing for Families
May we make our homes places of relaxation, joy, love, peace and safety. May we be generous and considerate, not thinking only about ourselves, but helping others enjoy the blessings of the summertime. Lord God, Creator of all things, guide our steps and strengthen our hearts during these months of summer and vacation days. Grant us refreshment of mind and body. May we constantly strive to make a meaningful difference in the lives of our loved ones and in the world around us as we enjoy the warm days of summertime. The Catholic Review

THE MINISTRY OF CONSOLATION

Wishes for a most blessed and very Happy Father’s Day from all of us at the Ministry of Consolation

Happy Father’s Day in Heaven
Father’s Day is nearing, the first without you here. This year I won’t get to pick up the phone to say “I love you” in your ear.

I think of you often, every morning, noon and night. I often think something’s wrong with me. How do I get over this, will the heavy pain ever become light?

I’ve learned that the grief will always be here. It comes in hard, but then subsides.
To say that you were my dad, I can say that with so much pride.

I will celebrate the memories. I’ll be brave, but I will surely cry.
 ‘Cause if anyone deserved the “Best Dad” award, well, you were that guy.

So, Happy Father’s Day in heaven!
I hope you feel all of our love radiate up to you!
Thank you for being the best dad here on earth, and for being the best angel dad, too!

In His Service, The Ministry of Consolation

OUR NEW ELDER SCAM SERIES! PART 6 of 6: THE GRANDPARENT SCAM

The grandparent scam is so simple and so devious because it uses one of older adults’ most reliable assets, their hearts.

Scammers will place a call to an older person and when the mark picks up, they will say something along the lines of: “Hi Grandma, do you know who this is?” When the unsuspecting grandparent guesses the name of the grandchild the scammer most sounds like, the scammer has established a fake identity without having done a lick of background research.

Once “in”, the fake grandchild will usually ask for money to solve some unexpected financial problem (overdue rent, payment for car repairs, etc.), to be paid via Western Union or MoneyGram, which don’t always require identification to collect. At the same time, the scam artist will beg the grandparent “please don’t tell my parents, they would kill me.”

While the sums from such a scam are likely to be in the hundreds, the very fact that no research is needed makes this a scam that can be perpetrated over and over at very little cost to the scammer.

WHAT TO DO IF YOU SUSPECT YOU’VE BEEN THE VICTIM OF A SCAM:
Don’t be afraid or embarrassed to talk about it with someone you trust. You are not alone, and there are people who can help. Doing nothing could only make it worse. Keep handy the phone numbers and resources you can turn to, including the local police, your bank (if money has been taken from your accounts), and Adult Protective Services. To obtain the contact information for Adult Protective Services in your area, call the Eldercare Locator, a government sponsored national resource line, at: 1-800-677-1116, or visit their website at: https://eldercare.acl.gov.
