What are the secrets of stewardship?

"As each one has received a gift, use it to serve one another as good stewards of God's varied grace" (1 Peter 4:10). Everything we have and all that we are is given to us by God because he loves us and trusts us to be good stewards of his love gifts. A good steward receives God's gifts gratefully, cherishes them, shares them, and returns them to God with interest.

Stewardship flows from love. The key is to be continually aware of what God has given us and to be deeply grateful. Good stewards know that they didn't earn their talents or resources and understand that they come from a Father who asks only for true love in return.

Giving feels good. Sharing God's gifts with those in need, whether it is our time, talents, or treasure, feels great. And, it's what Jesus asked us to do.

Stewards are instruments. Stewardship is actually God's love flowing through us and pouring out through us. The good steward joins in God's own generous nature by acting as God's hands on Earth.

God's purpose is the point. When we waste our talents, dawdle in pointless pursuits, or squander our resources, we put our own desires first ahead of God's will. Good stewards are God-centered rather than self-centered.

Why do Catholics call Rome “home”?

In Matthew 16, Jesus named Peter “the Rock” upon which Jesus would build his Church (Matthew 16:17-18). After the Ascension, St. Peter traveled to Rome for the Gospel, and became the bishop of the Christian community there. He was martyred and buried in Rome, and his successors became the next popes. Historically, the church in Rome proved to be a source of unity, strength, and faithfulness in adversity. Today, Catholics everywhere call Rome, the resting place of St. Peter, “home.”

Celebrate your mistakes

Do you dread making mistakes and beat yourself up when you do? Yet, mistakes are outcomes we didn’t expect and can lead to growth.

Step 1 – admit your mistake. You can only learn from a mistake if you admit you made one. As soon as we start blaming others, we miss out on any possible lessons.

Step 2 – enlist help. Talking to someone else about what happened gives you the benefit of your friend’s experience. He or she may have made a similar mistake or know of a way to deal with it.

Plus, describing the event helps you to think it through and perhaps see opportunities you didn’t know were there.

Step 3 – decide for change. Ask, “What will I do better next time?” Real growth and change happen when you see room for improvement. Then commit to making the necessary changes to avoid the mistake in the future.

Making mistakes doesn’t make you a mistake. Remember, God is the only one you know who doesn’t make them.

from Scripture

Luke 11:1-13, the perfect prayer

If you have ever thought, “I want to pray better,” this passage is for you. Here, Jesus teaches his disciples the Our Father. It’s actually four prayers in one. First, it’s a prayer of praise and thanksgiving to God. Second, it is a prayer of petition in which we ask God to provide what we need. Third, it is a prayer asking for forgiveness and the strength to be forgiving. Lastly, it is a prayer of acknowledgement of God’s providence. It makes us admit that God knows and wants what is best for us. In choosing to follow God’s will, even when it conflicts with our own, we place our trust in him.

God always answers prayers – usually it’s “Yes,” “No,” or “Wait…I have something better.” Also, he wants to know we’re committed to what we are requesting. Is it a real need or just a momentary thought? Like the neighbor in this Gospel reading, Jesus encourages us to be persistent and continue to ask for God’s help, seek his will, and be open to his grace in our lives.

Q & A

Who can baptize into the Catholic Church?

A member of the clergy is the ordinary minister of Baptism – a bishop, priest, or deacon. In emergencies, if there isn’t a priest present, anyone can baptize, even someone who isn’t baptized. In the case of an adult, the person to be baptized must have expressed at some point the desire to become a Catholic. The person baptizing must intend to baptize the person Catholic, and must use water and the words, “I baptize you in the name of the Father, and of the Son, and of the Holy Spirit.”

“The Church finds the reason for this possibility in the universal saving will of God” (Catechism of the Catholic Church (CCC), #1256). The fact that anyone can baptize anyone desiring to become part of the Church is a sign of God’s love for us. It speaks of God’s infinitely great desire to welcome everyone and anyone into his family. Note: Baptism is received only once. If someone is already a baptized Christian but not Catholic, no second Baptism is needed.

Feasts & Celebrations

July 5 – St. Elizabeth of Portugal (1336). The daughter of King Peter III of Aragon, she married King Denis of Portugal, whose infidelity caused her much suffering. He later repented and died a holy death. She became known as “the Peacemaker” for resolving political conflicts. After her husband’s death, she became a Franciscan tertiary and lived with the Poor Clares.

July 29 – St. Martha (1st century). In Luke’s Gospel, St. Martha served Jesus dinner, while his sister Mary sat at his feet and listened. At Lazarus’s death, she told Jesus, “I have come to believe that you are the Messiah, the Son of God” (John 11:27). Because of her faith, Lazarus was brought back to life.

July 26 – Saints Joachim and Anne (1st century). Little is known about Jesus’ grandparents, but we know Mary was raised in a devout home. Her unshakeable faith, her devotion to the laws of her religion, and her steadiness in crises indicate the values with which she was raised.

¿Cuáles son los secretos de la buena administración?

“Que cada uno ponga al servicio de los demás el carisma que ha recibido, y de este modo serán buenos administradores de los diversos dones de Dios” (1 Pedro 4:10).
Todo lo que tenemos y todo lo que somos es un regalo de Dios que nos ama y que confía en que seamos buenos administradores de sus amorosos dones.
Un buen administrador recibe los dones de Dios con gratitud, los aprecia, los comparte y se los devuelve a Dios con interés.
La buena administración procede del amor. Es clave prestar atención constante a lo que Dios nos ha dado y estar profundamente agradecidos por ello. Los buenos administradores saben que no se ganaron sus talentos o sus recursos y entienden que proceden de un Padre que solo pide a cambio amor verdadero.

Nos sentimos bien dando. Compartir los dones de Dios con los necesitados, tanto si se trata de nuestro tiempo, de habilidades o de dinero, hace que nos sintamos muy bien. Y es lo que Jesús nos pidió que hicieramos.
Los buenos administradores son instrumentos. La buena administración es el amor de Dios que fluye por nosotros y sale de nosotros. El buen administrador participa de la naturaleza generosa de Dios actuando como las manos de Dios en la Tierra.
Lo que importa es la voluntad de Dios. Cuando desperdiciamos nuestros talentos, perdemos tiempo en ocupaciones innutiles o dilapidamos nuestros recursos, ponemos nuestras propias necesidades por delante de la voluntad de Dios. Los buenos administradores se centran en Dios y no en sí mismos.

¿Por qué llaman “hogar” los católicos a Roma?

En Mateo 16, Jesús dice que Pedro es “la piedra” sobre la que edificará su Iglesia (Mateo 16:17-18). Después de la Ascensión san Pedro viajó a Roma para predicar el Evangelio y se convirtió en el obispo de la comunidad cristiana de la ciudad. Fue martirizado y enterrado en Roma y sus sucesores se convirtieron en los papas sucesivos. Históricamente la iglesia de Roma fue una fuente de unidad, fuerza y fe en la adversidad. Hoy día, los católicos de todo el mundo llaman “hogar” a Roma, la última morada de san Pedro.
¡Celebrén sus errores!

Le da miedo cometer errores y no se perdona haberlos cometido? Piense que los errores son resultados inesperados con los que podemos superarnos.

Paso 1 – admitir el error. Sólo se puede aprender de un error cuando se admite haberlo cometido. En el momento en que empezamos a culpar a los demás, nos privamos de posibles lecciones.

Paso 2 – pedir ayuda. Comentar lo sucedido con otra persona le da el beneficio de la experiencia del amigo. Quizás esa persona haya pasado por una experiencia semejante o sepa de una forma de hacerlo frente. Además, describir los acontecimientos le ayuda a reflexionar sobre ellos y a ver, tal vez, oportunidades cuya existencia ignoraba.

Paso 3 – decidirse a cambiar. Pregúntese: “¿Qué puedo hacer mejor la próxima vez?” El crecimiento real y el cambio tienen lugar cuando se distingue la posibilidad de mejorar. Decidase luego a hacer los cambios necesarios para evitar ese error en el futuro.

Cometer errores no lo convierte a usted en un error. Recuerde: Sólo Dios no comete errores.

Lucas 11:1-13, la oración perfecta

Elegimos seguir la voluntad de Dios, aunque esté en desacuerdo con la nuestra, depositamos en nuestra confianza.

Dios siempre atiende nuestras oraciones: Sí, No, o Espora... temo algo mejor. Quiero también saber que nos comprometemos a lo que pedimos. ¿Es una necesidad real, o sólo un pensamiento pasajero? Como El vecino del pasaje evangélico, Jesús nos anima a perseverar y a seguir pidiendo la ayuda de Dios, buscar su voluntad y abrir nuestras vidas a su gracia.

Fiestas y celebraciones

5 de julio – Santa Isabel de Portugal (1336). Hijía del rey Pedro III de Aragón, se casó con el rey Dionisio de Portugal, cuya infidelidad le causó enorme dolor. El se arrepintió más tarde y murió una muerte santa. A ella se la conoció como “la pacíficadora” por su habilidad para resolver conflictos políticos. Tras la muerte de su esposo se hizo franciscana terciaria y vivió con las clarisas pobres.

26 de julio – San Joaquín y santa Ana (siglo I). Se sabe poco de los abuelos de Jesús, pero sabemos que María creció en un hogar devoto. Su fe inquebrantable, su devoción a las leyes de su religión y su fortaleza en las crisis nos indican los valores en los que fue educada.

29 de julio – Santa Marta (siglo I). En el evangelio de Lucas, santa Marta sirvió la cena a Jesús mientras su hermana María se sentaba a sus pies y lo escuchaba. A la muerte de Lázaro le dijo a Jesús: “Sí, Señor, creo que tú eres el Mesías, el Hijo de Dios (Juan 11:27). A causa de su fe, Lázaro fue devuelto a la vida.
